

Iran Statistics Day- Report

October 21-22, 2012

Isfahan Mathematics House

"Statistics, Today's Needs & Tomorrow's Necessities"

Workshops and Exhibitions:

- Statistical Time Tunnel: Posters about the process of Iran Statistics development and introducing the famous Iranian Statisticians

- Statistical Tricks: Group discussions about some statistical sample tricks

- Introducing Statistical Soft wares: Showing some abilities of statistical soft wares

- Introducing Statistical Fields: Talking about statistics' courses at university level and various branches of this field at this level

- Statistics and Industry: Introducing two professional industrial projects used high level applications of statistics

- Statistical Game Room

- Future of Learning Statistics: Talking about statistics and Entrepreneurship

Besides holding the workshops and exhibitions, there was a mini-conference at IMH where professors from universities in Shiraz, Tehran and Isfahan and Isfahan high-school statistics teachers participated; and Professor Hamid Pezeshk delivered a speech about the applications of statistical methods.

At this conference IMH statistics group \(MABNA\) presented the report of their activities. At the end, a theater related to the topic was displayed and professor javad Behboodian and Hamid Pezeshk were appreciated.

